Reality Entertainment was developed in 1998 by Warren Croyle, a veteran producer based in Los Angeles. With over 15 years in the music industry his experience is very diverse. He has worked Internationally with artists such as Culture Club, Tupac Shakur, John Trudell, Hiroshima, Paul Kelly, Warrior, Reverend, Metal Church and members of Guns and Roses (The Outpatience) among others. Mr. Croyle has been instrumental in hundreds of recording, licensing and publishing negotiations independently and as a consultant. He was the co-founder of Sonic Distribution and had major success with releases from Dr. Dre and Ice T in 1994. His involvement was key in the development of Marlboro Music Group in 1995.

The primary focus of Reality Entertainment is producing high quality Rock and Metal acts, primarily previously established groups or vocalists with international potential. The goal of the company is to bridge the gap between the US and Europe by creating strategic alliances with partner companies. The company has developed relationships with key distributors, publishers and promotion entities to pursue this goal. With initial releases from The Outpatience featuring members Guns and Roses, Warrior, Fast Lane, David Wayne's Metal Church and WW3 featuring members of Black Sabbath and DIO, the company has received favorable reviews and generous support since its inception. Numerous releases are slated for next year.

REALITY ENTERTAINMENT USA

Joe Floyd and the Silvercloud Studios is a crucial part of Reality Entertainment. Mr. Floyd has produced a significant body of work in the Hard Rock genre and has recently been involved with artists such as Rob Halford, Bruce Dickinson and Downset. The production collaboration between Warren Croyle and Joe Floyd creates an exciting dynamic that is apparent in the quality of the companies productions.

Reality Entertainment is available for productions internationally and is also seeking artists and acts at MIDEM.
